Scope

British Wheelchair Basketball is committed to protecting and respecting your privacy and complying with the principles of applicable data protection laws. This notice sets out the basis on which any personal data we collect from you, or that you provide to us, will be processed by us. This includes when you provide personal data to us as part of using our website, online systems, by completing forms provided by us or by any other method including a Whistleblowing incident or information disclosed by another individual which may violate our Codes of Conduct. How we use your personal data will also depend in what capacity you interact with us (for example as a member or a customer).

We take great care to protect the rights of individuals, especially in the case of children (who are under 13). If you are aged 13 or under, please get your parent/guardian's permission before you provide any other personal information to us.

It is important that you read this privacy notice together with any other privacy notice or fair processing notice we may provide on specific occasions when we are collecting or processing personal data about you so that you are fully aware of how and why we are using your data. This privacy notice supplements other notices and privacy policies and is not intended to override them.

About us

Great Britain Wheelchair Basketball Association, known as British Wheelchair Basketball, is the controller and responsible for your personal data (collectively referred to as "BWB", "we", "us" or "our" in this privacy notice).

British Wheelchair Basketball will regularly review this Data Privacy Notice to ensure that best practice guidance is adhered to. It is important that the personal data we hold about you is accurate and current. Please keep us informed if your personal data changes during your relationship with us.

Aggregated Data could be derived from your personal data but is not considered personal data in law as this data will not directly or indirectly reveal your identity. For example, we may aggregate your Usage Data to calculate the percentage of users accessing a specific website feature. However, if we combine or connect Aggregated Data with your personal data so that it can directly or indirectly identify you, we treat the combined data as personal data which will be used in accordance with this privacy notice.

We will receive personal data (including special category personal data) about you from various third parties including professional teams, to collectively manage and determine behaviours away from the BWB programme within the professional club environment.

Special category data

When you play, or when you coach, deliver sessions, officiate or volunteer with us, we may process certain special category data. This is set out in the definitions of Player Data, Participant Data, Coach and Officials Data, Volunteer Data and Community Activator Data above. Special category data is data that is more sensitive and therefore requires greater protection.

We have in place an appropriate policy document and safeguards which we are required by law to maintain when processing such data. We may process special categories of personal information in the following circumstances:

- In limited circumstances, with your explicit written consent.
- For reasons of substantial public interest (for example, for disciplinary and safeguarding purposes and to conduct research about player performance).
- For the provision of medical care and treatment.
- For research and statistical purposes.
- Where it is needed in the public interest, such as for equal opportunities monitoring.
- For the provision of eligibility and classification decisions.

Less commonly, we may process this type of information where it is needed in relation to legal and insurance claims or where it is needed to protect your interests (or someone else's interests) and you are not capable of giving your consent, or where you have already made the information public.

Criminal offence data

For the purposes of compliance with our Competition Rules and Regulations and Safeguarding Policy, we may ask for DBS checks or seek criminal records information. This type of data is regulated under the legislation and we ensure that we limit the use of any such data both in time and in scope and that we meet appropriate lawful grounds for processing such data.

We may collect data from the following sources:

Direct interaction. You may give us your personal data:

- When you report a problem or make a complaint and, if you contact us, we may keep a record of that correspondence;
- When you complete optional surveys that we use for research purposes and to provide you with a more relevant customer experience; and
- When you respond to emails and other communications we have sent to you or when you communicate with us by post, phone, email, via the website and any other method of communication.
- When you access British Wheelchair Basketball administration systems, e.g. Playwaze Membership Portal, Globocol Eligibility Application System, Moodle Online Learning Environment, Wordpress Website, etc

Automated technologies or interactions. As you interact with our website, we will automatically collect Technical Data about your equipment, browsing actions and patterns. We collect this personal data by using cookies and other similar technologies (detailed further below).

Third parties or publicly available sources. We will receive personal data about you from various third parties and public sources as set out below:

- Technical Data from analytics providers such as Google based outside the EU; and
- Contact, Financial and Customer Data from providers of technical, payment and delivery services;
- Member, Coach and Official, Volunteer, Community Activator Data, Participant Data and Player Data from other organisations, for example, other clubs and High Performance Partnerships.
- Member Participant and Player Data from your social media accounts but only where you have given us permission to use it. For example, posts, pictures and video footage you share on sites such as Facebook and Twitter.
- Social Media Data from other individuals with whom you engage, either directly or indirectly. When you participate in British Wheelchair Basketball Leagues or Competitions, where we may communicate your Contact and Identity and Player Data publicly in order to publicise the sport through live statistics, event photography, promotional material and live broadcasting; or
- From third parties where you consent to those other organisations sharing information they hold on you with us, and where those other organisations lawfully share your information with us.
- Where you upload or provide video or photography content to a BWB digital system or directly to the NGB.

If you fail to provide personal data

Where we need to collect personal data by law, or under the terms of a contract we have with you, and you fail to provide that data when requested, we may not be able to perform the contract we have or are trying to enter into with you. We will advise you at the time whether the provision of your personal information is mandatory or not (as well as the possible consequences if you do not provide your personal information).

How we use your personal data

We will only use your personal data when the law allows us to. Most commonly, we will use your personal data in the following circumstances:

- Where we need to perform the contract we are about to enter into or have entered into with you.
- Where it is necessary for our legitimate interests (or those of a third party) and your interests and fundamental rights do not override those interests.
- Where we need to comply with a legal obligation.
- Where we need to comply with a governance and/or funder obligation
- Where we need protect your vital interests or those of another person.

Generally, we do not rely on consent as a legal basis for processing your personal data although we will get your consent before sending third party direct marketing communications to you via email or text message. You have the right to withdraw consent to marketing at any time by contacting us.

Purposes for which we will use your personal data

We have set out within an annex to this notice, in a table format, a description of all the ways we plan to use your personal data, and which of the legal bases we rely on to do so. We have also identified what our legitimate interests are where appropriate. Click here to view the table.

Note that we may process your personal data for more than one lawful ground depending on the specific purpose for which we are using your data. Please contact us if you need details about the specific legal ground we are relying on to process your personal data where more than one ground has been set out in the table below.

British Wheelchair Basketball will not use any of the personal information we collect from you to make automated business decisions that have a legal or material impact on you.

Marketing

We may use your personal data to form a view on what we think you may want or need, or what may be of interest to you. This is how we decide which products, services and offers may be relevant for you.

You will receive marketing communications from us if you have requested information from us, if you have become a member or if you have purchased goods or services from us and you have not opted out of receiving that marketing.

We will get your express opt-in consent before we share your personal data with any third party for marketing purposes.

Change of purpose

We will only use your personal data for the purposes for which we collected it, unless we reasonably consider that we need to use it for another reason and that reason is compatible with the original purpose. If you wish to get an explanation as to how the processing for the new purpose is compatible with the original purpose, please contact us. If we need to use your personal data for an unrelated purpose, we will notify you and we will explain the legal basis which allows us to do so. Please note that we may process your personal data without your knowledge or consent, in compliance with the above rules, where this is required or permitted by law.

We require all third parties to respect the security of your personal data and to treat it in accordance with the law. We do not allow our third-party service providers to use your personal data for their own purposes and only permit them to process your personal data for specified purposes and in accordance with our instructions.

International transfer of personal data

On some occasions, the information we collect may be transferred to organisations who may store and use such data at premises in other countries. Where we allow an organisation to process your personal information outside of the European Economic Area (EEA), we will ensure that a similar degree of protection is afforded to it by ensuring at least one of the following safeguards is implemented:

- We will only transfer your personal data to countries that have been deemed to provide an adequate level of protection for personal data by the European Commission. For further details, see European Commission: Adequacy of the protection of personal data in non-EU countries.
- Where we use certain service providers, we may use specific contracts approved by the European Commission which give personal data the same protection it has in Europe. For further details, see European Commission: Model contracts for the transfer of personal data to third countries.
- Where we use providers based in the US, we may transfer data to them if they are part of the Privacy Shield which requires them to provide similar protection to personal data shared between Europe and the US. For further details, see European Commission: EU-US Privacy Shield.

Please contact us if you want further information on the specific mechanism used by us when transferring your personal data out of the EEA

Data retention period

We will hold information about you in our data systems only for as long as we need it for the purpose for which we collected it, which is as follows:

- As long as you continue to log into our website or use our services (including engaging with emails, entering Wheelchair Basketball events, making purchases, entering prize draws or downloading content) we will retain and process information about you. In such cases, you will be considered to be an 'active' customer. If you have not been 'active' as a customer for a period of eleven years, British Wheelchair Basketball will deactivate your customer account and anonymise any personal data relating to you.

- Medical records may be retained for a period of 25 years from the date of your last 'active' season.
- Any data relating to the obligations of British Wheelchair Basketball to maintain a comprehensive, published index of results as a National Governing Body for sport will be retained. This would not include more than name, age category and gender alongside details of the event in which an individual took part.
- Personal data linked to the processing of insurance claims, subject access requests, disputes, safeguarding investigations, anti-doping, disciplinary or police matters will only be kept for as long as it necessary for those purposes, as each is applicable.

IP addresses and cookies

We may collect information about your computer, including where available your IP address, operating system and browser type, for system administration and to report aggregate information to our advertisers. This is statistical data about our users' browsing actions and patterns, and does not identify any individual.

You may refuse to accept cookies by activating the setting on your browser which allows you to refuse the setting of cookies. However, if you select this setting you may be unable to access certain parts of the website and online systems. Unless you have adjusted your browser setting so that it will refuse cookies, our system may issue cookies when you log on to the website and online systems.

Please note that our advertisers may also use cookies, over which we have no control.

In addition to cookies, British Wheelchair Basketball records the activity of users signed into our websites and systems in order to help us improve your customer experience and provide you with support. Please see our Cookie Policy for further information.

Your legal rights

Under certain circumstances, you have rights under data protection laws in relation to your personal data, which are summarised below:

- Right of access - You have the right to obtain a copy of information we hold about you.
- Right of rectification or erasure - If you feel that any data that we hold about you is inaccurate, you have the right to ask us to correct or rectify it. You also have a right to ask us to erase information about you where you can demonstrate that the data we hold is no longer needed by us, or if you withdraw the consent upon which our processing is based, or if you feel that we are unlawfully processing your data. Please note that we may be entitled to retain your personal data despite your request, for example if we are under a separate legal obligation to retain it. Your right of rectification and erasure extends to anyone we have disclosed your personal information to and we will take all reasonable steps to inform those with whom we have shared their data about your request for erasure.
- Right to restriction of processing - You have a right to request that we refrain from processing your data where you contest its accuracy, or the processing is unlawful and you have opposed its erasure, or where we do not need to hold your data any longer, but you need us to in order to establish, exercise or defend any legal claims, or we are in dispute about the legality of our processing your personal data.
- Right to Portability - You have a right to receive any personal data that you have provided to us in order to transfer it onto another data controller where the processing
